

THE REEDE SCHOLARS

President's Corner

Updates:

Greetings Scholars! Another summer has come and gone, but the Reede Scholars have been busy as usual. It was great to see those who attended the National Medical Association Meeting in Detroit this past August. Dr. Reede lectured and led an excellent panel of some of our own scholars as part of the W. Montague Cobb Lecture-ship and Symposium focused on information and research regarding racial and ethnic health disparities from the perspective of leadership.

It's not too late to participate in one of our subcommittees. Email us for more information.

As a reminder, annual dues are $100. There is a donate link on the home page. Or you can mail your check to the office, ATTN: Kavitha Prakash. 164 Longwood Ave., 2nd floor, Boston, MA 02115

The organization is named in honor of Dr. Joan Y Reede, founder of the Minority Health Policy Fellowship. The Reede Scholars have chosen to name their alumni organization after the creator and mentor of this program, Dr. Joan Y. Reede. A pioneer in efforts to improve the representation of ethnic minorities in health services careers, Dr. Reede has served as an inspiration for thousands of students seeking to make a difference in the health of their communities. The Reede Scholars hope to honor her work by continuing the legacy of achievement in minority health.
